The 1867 Sanctuary at Ewing

The Historic Haven for Arts and Culture in the Heart of Ewing, NJ

101 Scotch Road, Ewing NJ 08628

In 2012, Preservation New Jersey took full responsibility for the 1867 Sanctuary at Ewing, with a mission to facilitate sustainable adaptive public reuse of this historic landmark with its protection, repair, and rehabilitation.

Artists, musicians and preservationists agreed that the best use of this community gathering place was as a mid-sized arts venue. Working toward that goal, and obtaining a Certificate of Occupancy, PNJ re-opened the 1867 Sanctuary in November of 2015. It is now available to rent for a variety of events, concerts, talks, weddings, funerals, worship, and other gatherings. "1867 Productions" will also host series of concerts and productions at the Sanctuary benefitting both the artist and the Sanctuary's sustainability.

Although much work remains (i.e., new kitchenette and restroom facilities, tie-rod reinforcements beneath the roof trusses, improved lighting, gallery molding, and a side access drive for service and delivery vehicles), the building is nevertheless safe, and ready to take its place in the heart of Ewing as a premier arts center.

We invite you to experience and enjoy diverse genres of music, accomplished and up-and-coming talent, simple theater and inspired art in a stunningly beautiful and acoustically magnificent hall! Spread the word, and help support the on-going work to create, preserve and enhance this new, historic cultural haven:
